vehicles are available for order immediately and will be distributed internationally by Vmoto directly to customers via the Company's existing B2C distribution channels in over 50 countries and 4 continents, including Europe, South America, Asia and Africa.

Charles Chen, Managing Director commented: "I am delighted to announce the launch of three new B2C models, which have been more than one year in the making. 2020 has been a landmark year for the Company's growth. We continue to deliver excellent results operationally and commercially. We are confident that the release of these three new superior electric two-wheel vehicle B2C products will ensure our growth continues during the next year and beyond."

TS "Street Hunter"

The new TS is a sporty electric motorcycle that has a muscular, curvy design inspired by the "street fighter" style in the motorcycle world. The sporty lines and ease of ride TS, is designed for urban e-mobility that makes it an ideal companion for the younger generation.

The new TS has been completely redesigned to have greater power and high performance.

CUmini

CUmini is a young and fresh product inspired by the current CUX product, which has been designed for daily urban commuting, targeting passionate riders who love to have fun.

CUmini is an urban electric scooter that is light, easy to ride, easy to maintain, colourful, fun, loaded with technology, safe and a lower entry price. The CUmini will be the entry level to the Company's B2C range of products and will allow many enthusiastic riders to take home a 100% electric scooter at an affordable price.

TC "Wanderer"

The new TC is a sporty electric motorcycle that is designed with an adventurous DNA, featuring knobby tyres, providing more traction and deliverings maximum performance on a variety of terrains (on-road and off-road). The vehicle has been designed to have a retro café racer style, targeting motorcycle enthusiasts.

TC's adventurous nature required innovative solutions to protect the electric driving system, batteries and internal components from mud and water. As such, it has been engineered to protect the sensitive parts of the bike with highly resistant and infiltration-proof aluminum covers.
